We have wrap brying down so fine that we fear no competition whatever. It would be an interesting story for you to hear—just how we buy Coats and Capes so as to sell them at such little prices. What matters it to you if you get superior style, quality and workmanship for two-thirds what you would have to pay others. New "effects" are arriving daily—some of them we cannot duplicate. Drop in and you'll say that we are getting the Coat and Cape trade of the town—but give us half a chance and see what we'll do. Some "bargains" in silks, dress goods, comforts and blankets, &c., will make "merry" buying tomorrow:
